

SENATE BILL NO. 1108

AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE

(Proposed by the House Committee for Courts of Justice on _____)

(Patron Prior to Substitute--Senator McClellan)

A BILL to amend and reenact § 16.1-69.35 of the Code of Virginia, relating to Marsh Criminal-Traffic Division at Manchester General District Court and John Marshall Criminal-Traffic Division at Richmond General District Court; concurrent jurisdiction.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:1. That § 16.1-69.35 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:*§ 16.1-69.35. Administrative duties of chief district judge.

The chief judge of each district shall have the following administrative duties and authority with respect to his district:

1. When any district court judge is under any disability or for any other cause is unable to hold court and the chief judge determines that assistance is needed:

a. The chief district judge shall designate a judge within the district or a judge of another district court within the Commonwealth, if one is reasonably available, to hear and dispose of any action or actions properly coming before such district court for disposition;

b. If unable to designate a judge as provided in subdivision 1 a, the chief district judge may designate a retired district judge eligible for recall pursuant to § 16.1-69.22:1 for such hearing and disposition if such judge consents; or

c. If unable to assign a retired district court judge, the chief district judge may designate a retired circuit court judge eligible for recall pursuant to § 17.1-106 if such judge consents or the chief district judge may request that the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court designate a circuit judge if such judge consents.

If no judges are available under subdivision a, b or c, then a substitute judge shall be designated pursuant to § 16.1-69.21.

While acting, any judge so designated shall have all the authority and power of the judge of the court, and his order or judgment shall, to all intents and purposes, be the judgment of the court. A general district court judge designated pursuant to subdivision 1 a, may, with his consent, substitute for or replace a juvenile and domestic relations district court judge, and vice versa. The names of the judges designated under subdivisions b and c shall be selected from a list provided by the Executive Secretary and approved by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

2. The chief general district court judge of a district may designate any juvenile and domestic relations district court judge of the district, with the judge's consent, for an individual case or to sit and hear cases for a period of not more than one year, in any of the general district courts within the district. The chief juvenile and domestic relations district court judge of a district may designate any general district court judge of the district, with the judge's consent, for an individual case or to sit and hear cases for a period of not more than one year, in any of the juvenile and domestic relations district courts within the district. Every judge so designated shall have the same powers and jurisdiction and be authorized to perform the same duties as any judge of the district for which he is designated to assist, and, while so acting, his order or judgment shall be, for all purposes, the judgment of the court to which he is assigned.

3. If on account of congestion in the work of any district court or when in his opinion the administration of justice so requires, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court may, upon his own initiative or upon written application of the chief district court judge desiring assistance, designate a judge from another district or any circuit court judge, if such circuit court judge consents, or a retired judge eligible for recall, to provide judicial assistance to such district. Every judge so designated shall have the same powers and jurisdiction and be authorized to perform the same duties as any judge of the district for which he is designated to assist and while so acting his order or judgment shall be, to all intents and purposes, the judgment of the court to which he is assigned.

4. Subject to such rules as may be established pursuant to § 16.1-69.32, the chief judge may establish special divisions of any general district court when the work of the court may be more efficiently

53 handled thereby such as through the establishment of special civil, criminal or traffic divisions, and he 54 may assign the judges of the general district court with respect to serving such special divisions. In the 55 City of Richmond the general district court shall, in addition to any specialized divisions, maintain a
56 separate division of such court in that part of Richmond south of the James River with concurrent
57 ~~jurisdiction in civil matters whenever one or more of the defendants reside or the cause of action or any~~
58 ~~part thereof arises in that part of the city, concurrent jurisdiction over all traffic matters arising in that part~~
59 ~~of the city and concurrent jurisdiction over all other criminal matters arising in that part of the city over~~
60 all matters arising in the City of Richmond.

61 5. Subject to such rules as may be established pursuant to § 16.1-69.32, the chief judge shall 62 determine when the district courts or divisions of such courts shall be open for the transaction of business.
63 The chief judge or presiding judge of any district court may authorize the clerk's office to close on any 64 date when the chief judge or presiding judge determines that operation of the clerk's office, under 65 prevailing conditions, would constitute a threat to the health or safety of the clerk's office personnel or the 66 general public. Closing of the clerk's office pursuant to this subsection shall have the same effect as 67 provided in subsection B of § 1-210. In determining whether to close because of a threat to the health or 68 safety of the general public, the chief judge or the presiding judge of the district court shall coordinate
69 with the chief judge or presiding judge of the circuit court so that, where possible and appropriate, both 70 the circuit and district courts take the same action. He shall determine the times each such court shall be 71 held for the trial of civil, criminal or traffic matters and cases. He shall determine whether, in the case of 72 district courts in counties, court shall be held at any place or places in addition to the county seat. He shall 73 determine the office hours and arrange a vacation schedule of the judges within his district, in order to 74 ensure the availability of a judge or judges to the public at normal times of business. A schedule of the 75 times and places at which court is held shall be filed with the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court
76 and kept posted at the courthouse, and in any county also at any such other place or places where court
77 may be held, and the clerk shall make such schedules available to the public upon request. Any matter
78 may, in the discretion of the judge, or by direction of the chief district judge, be removed from any one of 79 such designated places to another, or to or from the county seat, in order to serve the convenience of the

80 parties or to expedite the administration of justice; however, any town having a population of over 15,000
81 as of July 1, 1972, having court facilities and a court with both general criminal and civil jurisdiction prior 82 to July 1, 1972, shall be designated by the chief judge as a place to hold court.

83 6. Subject to the provisions of § 16.1-69.38, the chief judge of a general district court or the chief
84 judge of a juvenile and domestic relations district court may establish a voluntary civil mediation program
85 for the alternate resolution of disputes. The costs of the program shall be paid by the local governing 86 bodies within the district or by the parties who voluntarily participate in the program.

87 2. That the provisions of this act are declaratory of existing law.
